31 PORTRAITS OF THE DUCHESS OF RICHMOND AND HER SON.

The former has the appearance of being twenty-five years of age, of a fair complexion, and auburn hair arranged in curls and decked with flowers. She is seen in nearly a front view, attired in a white satin robe and a brown fur tippet, standing with the left hand extended, and the right placed on her bodice.

Duncan. £2,047 10*s.*

PURCHASED BY

Her son, a boy of about five years old, is represented in the character of Cupid, standing by his mother, holding an arrow in his hand. A portion of a building and some sky form the background. This is a clear and beautiful production.

PURCHASED BY

seated in an arm chair, on which is inscribed "æt. 30, a° 1622"; an altar seen in the background, over which is a picture of the Holy Family with St. John and the Lamb, by Rubens.

47 in. by 36 in.

N. BERCHEM.

38 THE FORD. — J. H. Pollen. £735.

The view represents on the left a mass of rocks, the summits of which are clothed with trees. A shallow stream extends along the foreground, through which are passing two oxen, an ass laden with linen and cloth, a goat and two sheep; these are followed by a herdsman and a woman with a child at her back, and preceded at some distance by a man driving a flock of sheep and goats along a winding road, in advance of which is a man on an ass.

The effects of the close of a fine day pervades the scene.

44 THE BIRTH OF VENUS—oval.

Duncan. £1,680.

The beautiful goddess is represented alighting on the shore from the element that gave her birth, accompanied by nymphs, tritons, and a number of cupids, the latter playfully sporting in the air, bearing chaplets of flowers.

The surrounding border is decorated with Neptune and Amphitrite, Cupid and Psyche, sea nymphs, cupids, dolphins, vases, &c. This is a spirited and delightfully painted picture in grisaille, done for a design for a silver salver (most probably for Charles I.).

48 THE LOVES OF THE CENTAURS.

Stewart. £2,100.

This classic scene represents the fresh and verdant groves of Arcadia, in which is introduced the poetic fiction of the centaurs, two of which are fondly embracing in the foreground, and a second pair is seen sportively bounding over the meadows at a little distance. The enchanting beauty of the landscape, and the spirit and energetic expression displayed in the imaginary creatures, render this a production of matchless excellence.

HOBBEMA.

PURCHASED BY

49 A VIEW OF A WATER-MILL and adjoining cottages, situated in a well wooded country. Signed. — C. Sedelmeyer. £4,252 10*s.*

The composition of this admirable picture presents on the right a thick cluster of trees, the ample foliage of which partly conceals the cottages and overshadows the mill, the latter is placed near the centre of the view, with its gable and wheel towards the spectator, and a plank lies over timber work from an adjacent bank. The mill stream, which extends over the greater part of the foreground, is beautifully fringed with bulrushes and other aquatic weeds, and two pollard willows rise from its bank.

The figures which animate the scene are also by Hobbema, and consist of a man angling, another looking on, and a third is crossing a slight rustic bridge; beyond these are seen two cottages among trees. Light fleecy clouds float over the azure sky and aid the effect by alternate shade and sunshine.

Painted with a rich empasto of colour, accompanied by admirable firmness of hand.

P. WOUVERMANS.

77 A MAN WATERING HIS STEED, AND A SPORTSMAN WITH A GUN.

A landscape representing an arid country, with a hill on the right, surmounted by a cottage, a hay-rick, and a few straggling trees, the opposite side is watered by a river bounded by distant sandhills. A sportsman on a brown horse, with a gun on his shoulder, and followed by a boy on foot, and a dog is approaching on a winding road which leads over a hill, and in advance of him is a woman with a pack at her back sitting at the roadside. Considerably beyond these are a man and a boy, near the house already noticed. A man is watering his steed at the river, a traveller with a pack at his back, and other persons, are some distance from him. Painted in grey, cool tone of colouring.

RUBENS.

80 DANIEL IN THE DEN OF LIONS.

Duncan. £5,145.

The Prophet is represented sitting naked in the middle of the den, his hands clasped, and his countenance directed upward with an expression of earnest prayer. Nine lions are prowling around him.

Engraved by Blooteling, Van der Leuw, and Lamb, and in mezzotint by J. Ward. There is also an etching of it by Street, extremely rare.

This is one of the few great pictures by Rubens which we know with certainty to have been entirely executed by his own hand. Rubens says this explicitly in an Italian letter to Sir Dudley Carleton, which Mr. Carpenter has printed in his Pictorial Notices, p. 140.

This picture was presented by Sir Dudley Carleton to Charles I., and is inserted in the printed catalogue of his collection at page 87.

"No. 14.

Done by Sir Peter Paul Rubens. { Item.—A piece of Daniel in the lion's den, with lions about him. Given by the deceased Lord Dorchester to the king, so big as the life, in a black gilded frame."

417 THE ASSUMPTION OF THE VIRGIN.

It represents, below, the Apostles round the tomb of the Virgin, with the donor and his wife. Above is the Coronation of the Virgin, below that are three circles in the sky, each circle formed of three rows of figures, the Patriarchs, Prophets, Apostles, Evangelists, Martyrs, Confessors, Doctors, Virgins, and Hierarchies. The landscape exhibits views of Florence and Pistoia.

Painted for the church of San Pietro Maggiore, Florence, on the commission of Matteo Palmieri, who gave the whole scheme for the work.

Vasari, speaking in the highest terms of commendation, says envious detractors of the painter charged him and his patron with heresy, and the work was interdicted and covered from view.

760 A LAUGHING BOY.

Winckworth. £2,205.

"Nothing surely can exceed the masterly execution of this picture, it has the correctness of Raphael's drawing, and the grace and softness of Correggio's pencil.

"There are two drawings after the same boy in the drawing-book of Leonardo in the Ambrosian Library at Milan.

"This picture was in the Arundel Collection, and was inherited by Lady Betty Germaine, who left it in her will to the present proprietor. It was purchased at this sale for W. Beckford, Esq., of Fonthill, was lately sold at Fonthill by order of Mr. Farquhar, the purchaser of that fine estate, and was again purchased by Mr. Beckford, in whose collection it now is. This picture by Leonardo da Vinci was the only picture of note in the collection of Sir W. Hamilton."—Vide Buchanan's Memoirs of Painting, p. 79.

Henri II. Ware.

960 A HEXAGONAL SALT-CELLAR—4 in. high, width 3¾ in. — G. Attenborough. £840.

960

It forms a raised pedestal, flanked by a small attached three-quarter column; at each angle of the hexagon, in each of the intervening panels, is an oblong opening, surrounded by a wide moulded architrave or border, through this opening the hollow interior of the piece is visible, and in the centre within is seen a group in the round of three cupids sitting back to back, with their arms interlaced.

PURCHASED BY

The flat band or border round the side panels is inlaid with an intricate arabesque pattern, whilst the hollow bowl or cavity for the salt at the top is also richly inlaid with concentric zones of ornament surrounding a central medallion of minute arabesques. The base is surrounded by mouldings, and rests on six small cylindrical pedestal feet, betwixt which applique in the centre of each panel, and on the band of mouldings are bold grotesque masks in relief.

961 A TAZZA—height 4 in., width 5½ in. Rollin & Feuardent. £1,218.

A shallow hemispherical bowl, surmounted by a low neck or margin, is supported on rather a massive stem, richly adorned with masks and mouldings in relief, and flanked by three large detached scrolls or consoles, also enriched with masks, pecten shells, &c. The exterior is entirely covered with inlaid ornaments of the richest and most elaborate character in the red tint. The inside of the bowl is also inlaid with a beautiful composition of interlaced strap work, the interstices of which are filled in with arabesque terminal figures, dolphins, festoons, and branches of foliage.

961

A small medallion in the centre of the composition contains the usual device of the three interlaced crescents of Henri II.

Limoges Enamel.

PURCHASED BY

963 A TABLET, painted in colours on a white ground, representing the funeral of Psyche, from the engraving of Marc Antonio, after Raffaelle. It is executed in a pure broad style, and from its peculiar colouring is doubtless a late work of Leonard Limousin—10⅜ in. by 6 in. From the Rattier Collection. Exhibited at South Kensington, 1862. — H. Durlacher. £183 15*s.*

964 A QUADRANGULAR PLAQUE, with a half-length portrait executed in colours on a blue ground, it represents a young man in profile, with a close-fitting black dress and lilac sleeves, he holds his gloves in his hands, above his head is inscribed in gold "NE MEMOREM NOSTRI SOLA HŒC TE REDDAT IMAGO, ANNO SUE ÆTATIS 27, FACIEBAT, 1559;" below, an Italian inscription; at the back is the signature of the artist in gold, P. CORTEYS MAF. (in monogram)—5½ in. by 4 in. Exhibited at South Kensington, 1862. — T. M. Whitehead. £367 10*s.*

965 A QUADRANGULAR PANEL, painted in colours, an old man and woman are passing among trees and approaching a gentleman in the dress of the period, who is embracing a lady. From an owl, which is perched on a tree, and from the dark hue of the sky, it is to be presumed that the scene is supposed to occur at night. On a table below is inscribed "ORACLE DIVIN COGNOIS TOY TOYMESMS, in one corner P. C. in gold—5¾ in. by 5 in. Exhibited at South Kensington, 1862. — F. Davis. £178 10*s.*

966 A TAZZA AND COVER, of elegant form, on a foot, within the bowl is the subject of Samson and Dalilah, finely painted on the cover are other scenes from the life of Samson, all in grisaille on a brilliant black ground, under the bowl are wreaths and emblems of the Passion; on the foot are wreaths and trophies; within the cover are scenes also from the life of Samson, painted in gold in camaieu, underneath the foot is the following inscription in gold, "JOHANNES PENICAVDI JVNIOR, 1539"—8 in high., diam. 7½ in. This very remarkable enamel was formerly at Strawberry Hill. — T. M. Whitehead. £2,100.

967 A SMALL TWO-HANDLED TAZZA, with fluted border, painted with flowers in colours and with Cupid in the centre. by J. Laudin, the outside painted and gilt, and painted on the bottom with a landscape. — W. Grindlay. £68 5*s.*

PURCHASED BY

969 A EWER, with an oval or slightly flattened body, painted in grisaille on a black ground, with strong flesh tints, on the upper part are marine deities, on the lower centaurs and tritons fighting for women—height 11¼ in. Exhibited at South Kensington, 1862. — F. Davis. £735.

It is unsigned, unless the signature is concealed by the filigree mounting.

970 AN OVAL DISH, painted in grisaille on a black ground, with flesh tints and gilding. The feast of the gods, after Raffaelle; signed in front J. C., the back is decorated with two masks, and two arabesque figures and scroll work—20¼ in. by 15½ in. Exhibited at South Kensington, 1862. — W. Wareham. £1,207 10*s.*

971 A TRYPTYCH, painted in colours by Pierre Raymond, in the centre are represented the three Marys weeping over the dead body of Christ, after Raffaelle, in the lower part P. R. in gold. On the left wing, a figure of a prophet, DANIEL PROFETES, standing under a canopy, painted in brown heightened with gold; on the pediment and base are figures and arabesques in camaïeu. The prophet holds a scroll, "O VOS OMNES QUI TRANSITIS PER VIAM ATTENDITE ET VIDETE SI EST DOLOR SICUT," on the upper part, in gold, P. R., 1538. On the right wing an apostle, with white beard, holding a scroll, "CHRISTUS PASSUS EST PRO NOBIS VOBIS RELINQUENS EXENPLUM." This is under a similar canopy to the last, drawn in a rich golden brown, touched up with gold and shaded with darker brown, in the upper part P. R. in gold—centre 7¾ in. by 6½ in., sides 7¾ in. by 2¾ in. Exhibited at South Kensington, 1862. — W. Wareham. £1,218.

972 AN OBLONG TABLET, painted in grisaille without flesh tints; subject, Samson slaying the Philistines. It is signed MDPP., the two first letters being joined in a monogram—the companion—6 in. by 3½ in. From the Collection of M. Defournet, Paris. Exhibited at South Kensington, 1862. — F. Davis. £173 5*s.*

973 A QUADRANGULAR TABLET, very exquisitely painted in grisaille on a black ground—6 in. by 3¾ in. From the Collection of M. Defournet, Paris, 1820. — G. Attenborough. £1,328 5*s.*

It represents the adoration of the Magi, a rich and florid composition; in the foreground is a capital of a column, on the truncated portion of which is inscribed P.M. the letters being placed one over the other, perhaps "Penicaudi Manu."

974 A QUADRANGULAR PLAQUE, painted in grisaille on a black ground, with a few touches of gold. It represents an allegorical subject known as the Calumny of Apelles, being an imaginary reproduction of the painting executed by that artist in allusion to the false accusation brought against him by Antiphilus. This composition — A. W. Franks. £320 5*s.*

1120 THE ENTOMBMENT.
39 in. by 52 in.
National Gallery, Dublin. £504.

The body of the Saviour is here extended on white linen along the foreground of the picture. St. John kneels at the head, which he supports with one hand, while with the other he holds the Saviour's arm; at the same time the venerable Joseph of Arimathea, who is clothed in a pink coloured mantle and wears a yellow turban, is partly within the tomb, bending over the feet, apparently engaged in wrapping the body in linen.

The mournful ceremony is attended by the three Marys; one of them, enveloped in a white mantle, is kneeling by the side of her deceased Lord, bathing His hand with her tears. Mary the mother of James stands on the right of Joseph, and the Virgin is near the centre, in the act of raising her blue mantle to wipe her streaming eyes. A brass bowl and vase are on the left of the picture. The gloom of closing day adds to the solemn effect of the scene.

CLAUDE LORRAINE.

1134 ARIADNE AND BACCHUS;—or more probably Ulysses discovering himself to Nausicaa, the daughter of Alcinous. The view exhibits a seaport or spacious bay, on the right of which is a beautiful cluster of trees, growing on a rugged bank, amidst bushes, and concealing in part the ruin of an ancient edifice; beyond this is seen part of the city of Phœnicia, and a fleet of ships at anchor near it, from hence the view extends to the distant mountains and the entrance to the port. In the centre of the foreground is seated a young female (Nausicaa) attired in a red vest and a blue mantle, her attention appears to be suddenly arrested by a man (Ulysses) issuing from behind a tree at the side and cautiously discovering himself to her. The storm of the previous night (described by the poet in the Odyssey, Books V. and VI.) has subsided, and the morning is ushered in by the gentle breezes, which play over the surface of the water, accompanied by the most brilliant purity and freshness of atmosphere.

1608 LADY DIGBY, after Van Dyck, by P. Oliver. — P. and D. Colnaghi and Co. £294.

Lady Digby, on vellum (6 in. by 5 in.), in an ebony casket, set with Wedgwood cameos. It was originally in Horace Walpole's collection, and afterwards purchased by Lord Northwick. It is in all probability the miniature described in Walpole's anecdotes of painting as "another lady of the family, exquisitely painted by Peter Oliver, probably the second wife of John Digby." If this be correct, it must be the portrait of Margaret, daughter of Sir E. Longueville, of Wolverton, Bucks.

PRESS NOTICES.

"Vies with the leading Art publications of London and Paris."—Daily Telegraph.

"Sumptuously printed on fine paper, in large folio form, and accompanied by illustrations of artistic value, the new periodical seems likely to win a permanent place in public favour."—Daily News.

"The typography, paper, and general finish are all that could be desired."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"Well written, beautifully printed, and illustrated with engravings of such merit that they are worthy of being framed."—Morning Post.

"A distinct advance in the Art Literature of England."—Allen's Indian Mail.

"We wish the new magazine all success, and gladly welcome this praiseworthy effort to bring the highest forms of art within the reach of all classes."—Saturday Review.

"'Art and Letters' is admirably got up, and should have a successful career before it."—Court Circular.

"A very creditable production in every respect, well calculated to create a favourable impression."—Globe.

"'Art and Letters' should speedily win its way to popular favour."—North British Daily Mail.

"Clear and elegant printing, many good and some first-rate illustrations, and papers of various kinds, all of which are more or less thoughtful, and graceful, and readable. The story, 'An Ill-Considered Blow,' is of phenomenal excellence."—Athenæum.

"The new venture stands quite alone among English artistic magazines."—Liverpool Mail.

"Marvellously cheap and singularly good."—Era.

"One of the most promising ventures in periodical literature that has been seen for many years."—County Gentleman.

"Likely to receive, as it certainly merits, a considerable share of public attention."—Liverpool Courier.

"The second number will still further strengthen the favourable impression made by the first."—Leeds Mercury.

"A splendid shilling's worth."—Guardian.

"An excellent shilling's worth."—Bazaar.

"A wonderful shilling's worth."—World.

"An amazing shilling's worth."—Vanity Fair.

"A marvel for the money."—Society.

"'Art and Letters' is an amazing shilling's worth."—Vanity Fair.

"Mr. Comyns Carr has reason to be proud of the artistic work as well as the descriptive letter-press."—Bell's Life.

"Of art journals this is one of the cheapest and the best."—Surrey Comet.

"Few more attractive magazines are published than 'Art and Letters.'"—Wolverhampton Chronicle.

"The editor, Mr. Comyns Carr, must be congratulated upon providing one of the very best shilling's worth obtainable."—London Figaro.

"If the price of 'Art and Letters' were half-a-crown instead of a shilling, it would seem more like the fitness of things."—Detroit Free Press.

"'Art and Letters' is the most wonderful shilling's worth we have ever seen."—Lady's Pictorial.

"'Art and Letters' is an excellent production."—European Mail.

"Nothing, in fact, could be better in its way than this charming miscellany with its brightly-written letter-press and still brighter woodcuts."—Manchester Courier.

"Maintains the character it assumed at starting, as one of the best written and best illustrated, as well as one of the cheapest of our fine art serials."—Scotsman.

"It is a remarkably fine work, and a great amount of ability is manifestly expended upon its production."—Grantham Journal.

"The numbers of 'Art and Letters' are surprisingly cheap, and one wonders how for a shilling so much that is attractive and artistic can be offered to the public."—Colliery Guardian.

"'Art and Letters' stands in the first rank of artistic magazines, and is, honestly speaking, absurdly cheap at the price of a shilling."—Carmarthen Journal.

"The Magazine certainly occupies a prominent place among illustrated journals partially devoted to artistic matters."—Belfast News Letter.

"We are inclined to speak highly of this journal, the get-up of which is beautiful."—South Wales Press.

"Full of excellent engravings, printed on the finest paper."—Life.

"This first-class magazine is now before us, and fully sustains, in every respect, the high standard with which it started."—The Welshman.
